Offenses in Uniform Crime Reporting

Uniform Crime Reporting Program

In 1930, the FBI assumed administrative responsibility for the Uniform Crime Reporting (UCR) Program. The UCR Program is a nationwide cooperative effort by city, state, and county law enforcement agencies to report data on crimes reported in their jurisdiction. The International Association of Chiefs of Police (IACP) developed this methodology for crime reporting in response to the need for national crime statistics. The data provides the information necessary to gain a basic understanding of the nature and scope of the nation's crime problem.

The submission of data regarding crimes committed within the agency's jurisdiction is required by Alaska Statute (AS) 12.62.130. Since June of 1982, the Department of Public Safety (DPS) has administered the UCR Program for the State of Alaska. The Criminal Records and Identification Bureau, located within the Division of Statewide Services, is responsible for collecting, tabulating, reporting, and publishing the UCR data provided by state and local law enforcement agencies. The submitting agencies retain responsibility for the accuracy of their data, and DPS conducts biennial audits with each agency to ensure data is collected and reported in accordance with the national UCR program guidelines.

The Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) identified ten offense categories, selected because of their seriousness and frequency, as crime index offenses. These ten offenses are referred to as Part I offenses by the FBI. The UCR Program collects and reports all Part I offenses that become known to law enforcement, whether or not they involve arrests. Offenses which do not fit into the Part I offense classification are considered Part II offenses. The UCR Program only collects arrest data for Part II offenses in addition to the Part I offense and arrest data.

Part I offenses contain both violent crimes (crimes against people) and property crimes. The FBI's crime index includes murder, rape, robbery, aggravated assault, and human trafficking in the violent crime category and, burglary, larceny-theft, motor vehicle theft, and arson in the property crime category. While the FBI generally classifies robbery as property crime, due to the violent nature of this offense it is included in the violent crime calculations.

In 2015, 32 agencies reported crime data to DPS. All 32 agencies provided 12 months of crime data to the department. The agencies who reported 12 months of crime data represented 99.5 percent of the state's population. Monthly crime statistics are forwarded to the FBI for inclusion in its annual Crime in the United States publication, and are used to compile the annual Crime in Alaska publication. This document is a major resource for measuring the trend and distribution of crime in Alaska.

The Crime Clock should be viewed with care. Being the most aggregate representation of UCR data, it is designed to convey the annual reported crime experience by showing the relative frequency of occurrence of the Index Offenses. This mode of display should not be taken to imply a regularity in the commission of the Crime Index Offenses; rather, it represents the annual ratio of crime to fixed time intervals.

2015 UCR Crime Index

Definition

The crime index is composed of selected offenses used to gauge fluctuations in the overall volume and rate of crime reported to law enforcement. The offenses included are the violent crimes of murder and non-negligent manslaughter, rape, robbery, aggravated assault, and the property crimes of burglary, larceny-theft, motor vehicle theft, and arson*. Crime in Alaska defines all violent crime as involving force or threat of force whereas the object of property crime is the taking of money or property without force or threat of force against the victim.

The FBI began collecting arson data in 1979. Because national population coverage for arson data is lower than other Crime Index offenses, the FBI tabulates arson data separately from the other index offenses in Crime in the United States. Beginning in 2012, Alaska includes arson in the state crime index and rate calculations. In previous years, arson was not included in the calculations; however, the data was included at the agency level.

Summary

The calculations represented in Crime in Alaska are made utilizing the index offense totals for the current and previous year as well as population estimates provided by the FBI. Offense totals only include agencies who have reported crime data for all twelve months. The overall violent crime and the overall property crime index totals increased in 2015. The crime rate, which relates the incidence of crime to population, likewise experienced similar fluctuations as the index totals. In 2015, the percentage of the population represented by reporting agencies increased slightly to 99.5 percent. All facts are important to consider when reviewing the fluctuations in the crime index and rate variances between 2014 and 2015, as well as changes in the crime index offense totals and their distributions. Caution should be exercised when comparing data from year to year and making conclusions.

The crime index is used to gauge fluctuations in the number of offenses reported to law enforcement.

The crime rate compares the incidence of offenses in relation to the total reporting agency population. An offense rate (or crime rate) is defined as the number of offenses per 100,000 persons, and is derived by dividing the FBI's population estimates for reporting agencies by 100,000 and then dividing the number of offenses by the resulting figure.

* Revised definition of Rape implemented in 2013 now allows for female and male victims, however, prior year definition was limited to female population numbers.

† Prior to 2012 crime data for Arson was not included in the index and rate calculations.

2015 Murder and Non-Negligent Manslaughter

Definition

The National Uniform Crime Reporting (UCR) Program defines murder and non-negligent manslaughter as the willful (non-negligent) killing of one human being by another. The classification of this offense is based solely on police investigation as opposed to the determination of a court, medical examiner, coroner, jury, or other judicial body. The UCR Program does not include the following situations in this offense classification: deaths caused by negligence, suicide, or accident; justifiable homicides; and attempts to murder or assaults to murder, which are scored as aggravated assaults.*

Summary

A total of 59 murders were recorded in 2015. This represents 1.1 percent of the violent crimes and 0.2 percent of the total crime index offenses. The number of murders increased 47.5 percent between 2014 and 2015, while the murder rate increased 47.0 percent. Three (3.0) percent of the identified offenders were juveniles, 82.0 percent were aged eighteen and over, and the remaining 15.0 percent were unknown offenders. Ten (10.0) percent of the victims were juveniles and 90.0 percent were 18 and over. Of the 59 murders recorded, 69% involved a firearm.

2015 Rape

Definition

In December 2011, the Criminal Justice Information Services (CJIS) Advisory Board approved, and the National Uniform Crime Reporting (UCR) Program implemented, revisions to the definition of rape. The revised definition went into effect in January 2013. All 32 agencies who contribute UCR data to the State Program currently report using the revised definition. Rape, as now defined by the National UCR Program, is penetration, no matter how slight, of the vagina or anus with any body part or object, or oral penetration by a sex organ of another person, without the consent of the victim.* This definition includes either gender of victim or offender. This definition also includes instances in which the victim is incapable of giving consent because of temporary or permanent mental or physical incapacity (including due to the influence of drugs or alcohol) or because of age. Physical resistance is not required to demonstrate lack of consent.

Summary

In 2015, the crime index for rape has been calculated and was compared to the crime index for rape in 2014 and 2013, the second year using the FBI's revised definition of rape. Due to the significant difference between the revised definition for 2013 reporting as compared to the legacy definition for 2012 and earlier, the increased rate in 2013 and on should be noted with an acknowledgement of that difference. A total of 895 rapes were reported in 2015; fifty-three (53) attempted rapes were reported and are included in the total. Arrest data indicated 14.4 percent of the persons arrested for rape were juveniles and 85.6 percent were aged eighteen or older.

The Anchorage Police Department also reported rape offenses under both the legacy definition (2012 and prior), and the revised definition (2013 and later). In 2015, they reported 517 offenses under the revised definition and 303 under the legacy definition.

More information about rape and other sex offenses can be found in the supplemental report included in this publication, Felony Level Sex Offenses 2015.

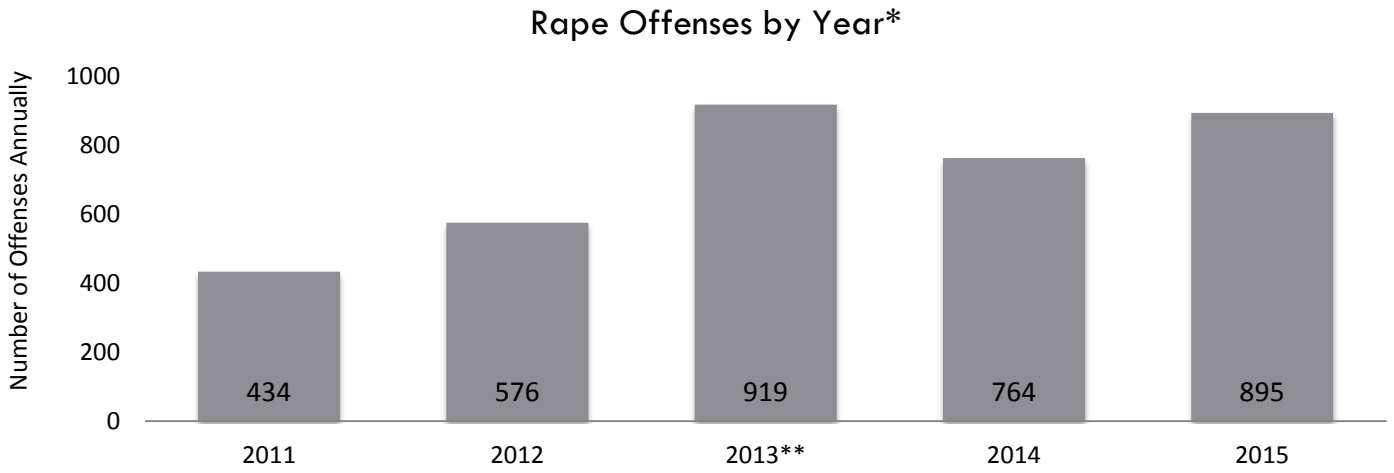
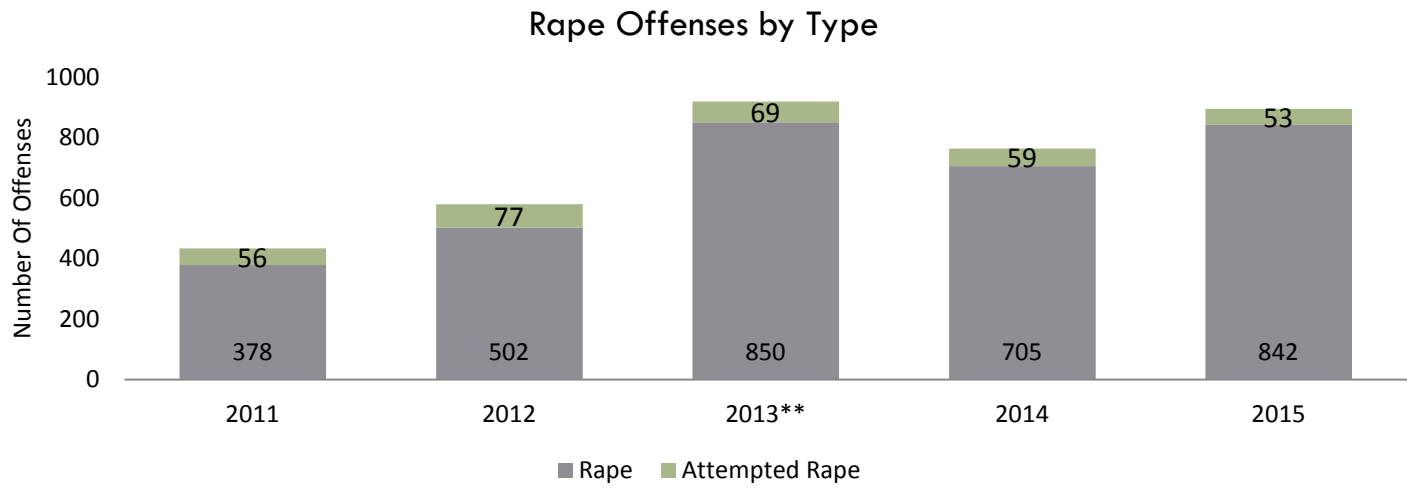
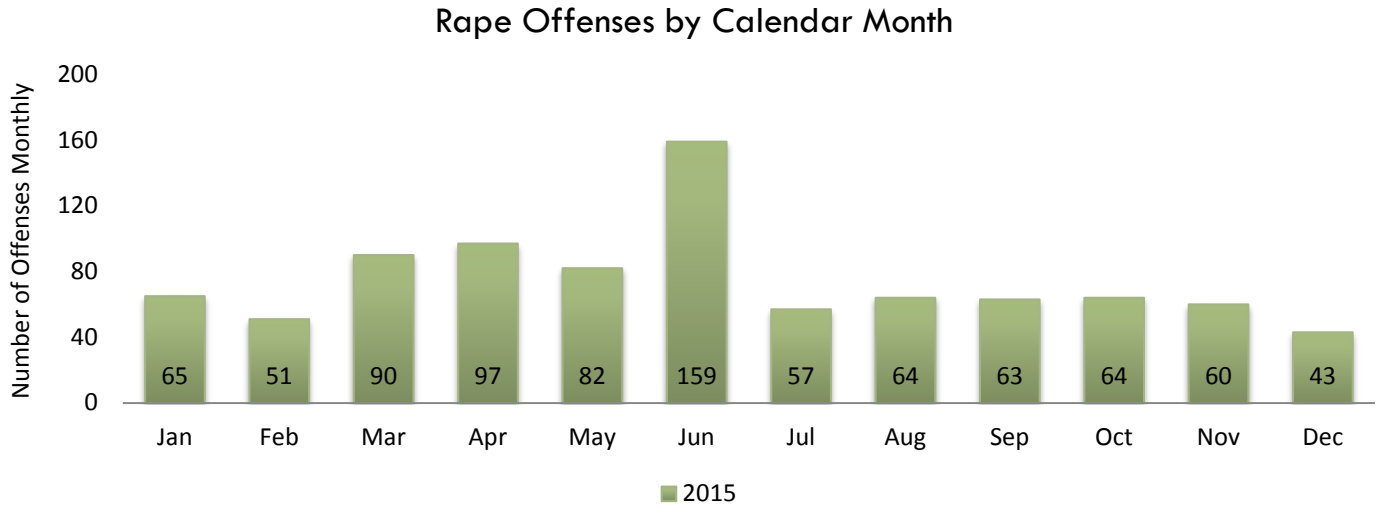
Revised definition of Rape implemented in 2013 now allows for female and male victims; however, prior year definition was limited to female population numbers.







*Current year rape offenses were not compared to a five year median due to the inability to compare reported offenses before and after the definition change in 2013.
Revised definition of rape implemented in 2013 allows for either gender of victim or offender; however, prior year definition was limited to female victims and male offenders only.

2015 Aggravated Assault

Definition

The Uniform Crime Reporting (UCR) program defined aggravated assault as an unlawful attack by one person upon another for the purpose of inflicting severe or aggravated bodily injury.* The UCR Program further specifies this type of assault is usually accompanied by the use of a weapon or by other means likely to produce death or great bodily harm. Attempted aggravated assault that involves the display of, or threat to use, a gun, knife, or other weapon is included in this crime category because serious personal injury could likely result if the assault were completed.

Summary

A total of 3,654 aggravated assaults were reported in 2015. Arrest data submitted by the thirty-two reporting agencies indicated 7.6 percent of the offenders were juveniles, while 92.4 percent were 18 and over. Seventy-seven point four (77.4) percent of the persons arrested for aggravated assault were male. Personal weapons (hands, fists, or feet) were used in 32.0 percent of the reported aggravated assaults, while the use of firearms accounted for twenty percent of the reported aggravated assault offenses.

2015 Burglary

Definition

The Uniform Crime Reporting (UCR) Program defines burglary as the unlawful entry of a structure to commit a felony or theft.* To classify an offense as a burglary, the use of force to gain entry need not have occurred. The UCR Program has three sub classifications for burglary: forcible entry, unlawful entry where no force is used, and attempted forcible entry. The UCR definition of "structure" includes, for example, apartment, barn, house trailer or houseboat when used as a permanent dwelling, office, railroad car (but not automobile), stable, and vessel (i.e., ship).

Summary

A total of 3,498 burglaries were reported in 2015. This represents 16.8 percent of the property crimes and 13.3 percent of the total crime index offenses. Arrest data submitted by the thirty-two reporting agencies indicated 25.7 percent of the persons arrested for burglary were juveniles, while 74.2 percent were aged 18 or over, and males constituted 82.3 percent of persons arrested for the offense of burglary. The agencies that reported burglaries in their jurisdiction also provided supplemental data regarding the place, time of occurrence, and value of property stolen during the burglary. The total estimated value of property loss for both residential and non-residential was $8,051,352.

Appendix: Offenses in Uniform Crime Reporting

The Uniform Crime Reporting (UCR) Program divides offenses into two groups, Part I and Part II crimes (offenses). Each month, participating law enforcement agencies submit information on the number of Part I offenses known to them; those offenses cleared by arrest or exceptional means; and the age, sex, and race of persons arrested for each of the offenses. Contributors provide only arrest data for Part II offenses.

The UCR Program collects data about Part I offenses in order to measure the level and scope of crime occurring throughout the Nation. The Program's founders chose these offenses because they are serious crimes, they occur with regularity in all areas of the country, and they are likely to be reported to police. Part I and Part II offenses are defined below.

Part I offenses:

Criminal homicide: a) Murder and non-negligent manslaughter: the willful (non-negligent) killing of one human being by an-other. Deaths caused by negligence, attempts to kill, assaults to kill, suicides, and accidental deaths are excluded. The Program classifies justifiable homicides separately and limits the definition to: (1) the killing of a felon by a law enforcement officer in the line of duty; or (2) the killing of a felon, during the commission of a felony, by a private citizen. b) Manslaughter by negligence: the killing of another person through gross negligence. Deaths of persons due to their own negligence, accidental deaths not resulting from gross negligence, and traffic fatalities are not included in the category Manslaughter by Negligence.

Rape (2013): Penetration, no matter how slight, of the vagina or anus with any body part or object, or oral penetration by a sex organ or another person, without consent of the victim. This definition includes either gender of victim or offender. This definition also includes instances in which the victim is incapable of giving consent because of temporary or permanent mental or physical incapacity (including due to the influence of drugs or alcohol) or because of age. Physical resistance is not required on the part of the victim to demonstrate lack of consent. Statutory offenses (no force used – victim under age of consent) are excluded.

Robbery: The taking or attempting to take anything of value from the care, custody, or control of a person or persons by force or threat of force or violence and/or by putting the victim in fear.

Aggravated assault: An unlawful attack by one person upon another for the purpose of inflicting severe or aggravated bodily injury. This type of assault usually is accompanied by the use of a weapon or by means likely to produce death or great bodily harm. Simple assaults are excluded.

Burglary (breaking or entering): The unlawful entry of a structure to commit a felony or a theft. Attempted forcible entry is included.

Larceny-theft (except motor vehicle theft): The unlawful taking, carrying, leading, or riding away of property from the possession or constructive possession of another. Examples are thefts of bicycles, motor vehicle parts and accessories, shoplifting, pocket-picking, or the stealing of any property or article that is not taken by force and violence or by fraud. Attempted larcenies are included. Embezzlement, confidence games, forgery, check fraud, etc., are excluded.

Motor vehicle theft: The theft or attempted theft of a motor vehicle. A motor vehicle is self-propelled and runs on land surface and not on rails. Motorboats, construction equipment, airplanes, and farming equipment are specifically excluded from this category.

Arson: Any willful or malicious burning or attempt to burn, with or without intent to de-fraud, a dwelling house, public building, mo-tor vehicle or aircraft, personal property of another, etc.

Human Trafficking – Commercial Sex Acts (2013): Inducing a person by force, fraud, or coercion to participate in commercial sex acts, or in which the person induced to perform such act(s) has not attained 18 years of age.

Human trafficking – involuntary servitude (2013): The obtaining of a person(s) through recruitment, harboring, transportation, or provision, and subjecting such per-sons by force, fraud, or coercion into involuntary servitude, peonage, debt bondage, or slavery (not to include commercial sex acts).

Part II offenses:

Other assaults (simple): Assaults and attempted assaults which are not of an aggravated nature and do not result in serious in-jury to the victim. Stalking, intimidation, coercion, and hazing are included.

Forgery and counterfeiting: The altering, copying or imitating of something, without authority or right, with the intent to deceive or defraud by passing the copy or thing altered or imitated as that which is the original or genuine; or the selling, buying, or possession of an altered, copied, or imitated thing with the intent to deceive or defraud. Attempts are included.

Fraud: The intentional perversion of the truth for the purpose or including another person or other entity in reliance upon it to part with something of value or to surrender a legal right. Fraudulent conversion and obtaining money or property by false pre-tenses. Confidence games and bad checks, except forgeries and counterfeiting, are included.

Embezzlement: The unlawful misappropriation or misapplication by an offender to his/her own use or purpose of money, property, or some other thing of value entrusted to his/her care, custody, or control.

Stolen property (buying, receiving, possessing): Buying, receiving, possessing, selling, concealing, or transporting any property with the knowledge that it has been unlawfully taken, as by burglary, embezzlement, fraud, larceny, robbery, etc. Attempts are included.

Vandalism: To willfully or maliciously destroy, injure, disfigure, or deface any public or private property, real or personal, without the consent of the owner or person having custody or control by cutting, tearing, breaking, marking, painting, drawing, covering with filth, or any other such means as may be specified by local law. Attempts are included.

Weapons (carrying, possessing, etc.): The violation of laws or ordinances prohibiting the manufacture, sale purchase, transportation, possession, concealment, or use of firearms, cutting instruments, explosives, incendiary devices, or other deadly weapons. Attempts are included.

Prostitution and commercialized vice: The unlawful promotion of or participation in sexual activities for profit, including attempts.

The following drug categories are specified: opium or cocaine and their derivatives (morphine, hero-in, codeine); marijuana; synthetic narcotics – manufactured narcotics that can cause true addiction (demerol, methadone); and dangerous non-narcotic drugs (barbiturates, benzedrine).

Gambling: To unlawfully bet or wager money or something else of value; assist, promote, or operate a game of chance for money or some other stake; possess or transmit wagering information; manufacture, sell, purchase, possess, or transport gambling equipment, devices, or goods; or tamper with the outcome of a sporting event or contest to gain a gambling advantage.
