

DEA

BASIC DRUG INVESTIGATION COURSE
APPLICATION/REGISTRATION

The Drug Enforcement Administration, Seattle Field Division, is pleased to announce a two-week Basic Drug Investigation Course in Anchorage, Alaska April 18-29, 2016. The course will be held at the 4805 Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Avenue, Anchorage, Alaska 99507. Upon enrollment in the course, a confirmation will be sent with applicable course information. There is no fee for the course; however DEA does not pay for travel, lodging or meals.

The Basic Drug Enforcement Course is open to all State and Local Law Enforcement Officers. Anyone who has previously attended a DEA Two Week Basic Narcotics School is not eligible to attend. Priority will be given to those who are assigned to, or designated for, assignment to drug units and drug task forces and to those who register before March 25, 2016 on a first come-first served basis. Registration is limited to 45 students. This is a basic course, so applicants' experience in narcotics units may be considered.

This is an 80-hour course requiring students to attend all classes and pass all examinations for successful completion. Please be sure all students will be available for the entire course. This course will include classroom lectures, group discussions, individual and group exercises, practical field problems, scenarios and tests. All classes will be conducted Monday through Friday. The hours for instruction and practical exercises may vary and will include at least one evening practical exercise. The total hours of required instruction will not exceed 80 hours. All participants must be full-time, sworn law enforcement officers and considered "On-Duty" while attending the course.

The surveillance practical exercises will require the students to participate using a rental or unmarked agency vehicle. Students without vehicles will be partnered with another student who has a vehicle.

If you are interested in attending the course please return the attached form, signed by you and your supervisor, to Special Agent Albert Brezicha, DEA Seattle at SeattleTraining@usdoj.gov or by Fax to 206-281-5245. If you are admitted to the course, you will receive a confirmation. Please contact Special Agent Brezicha at (206) 553-7281 if you have questions that are not answered by this announcement.

While we would like to be able to accommodate everyone, enrollment is limited. Please submit your registration promptly. Registrations received by March 25, 2016 will receive priority consideration for admittance.
