Don't be a Turkey: Click It or Ticket on Thanksgiving

(ANCHORAGE, Alaska) – The Alaska State Troopers will be out conducting extra traffic enforcement patrols to ensure the safety of Alaskans while they celebrate the Thanksgiving Holiday. While it is a Click it or Ticket enforcement effort, troopers will also be watching for people driving impaired, speeding, making inappropriate lane changes and other driving infractions.

Regardless of what your plans are for Thanksgiving, Troopers encourage you to practice safe driving behaviors on the roads while traveling to and from your destination. Please leave plenty of room between you and the vehicle in front of you and allow plenty of time to stop at traffic signs and signals as the roads are expected to be slick! If you consume drugs or alcohol, plan to either stay the night or to have a sober driver in charge of operating your vehicle. Always have a plan to celebrate safely and responsibly.

Alaska State Troopers also encourage everyone to Report Every Dangerous Driver Immediately by calling 9-1-1.

Remember to Click it or Ticket.

Funding for the Click It or Ticket enforcement is provided by grant sources distributed through the Alaska Highway Safety Office.
